

In The United State District Court for the District of Delaware

Kenneth Holland,
Plaintiff,

v.

Stanley Taylor, et al.
Defendant,

Civ. No. 05-464-(SLR)

Motion to show cause

BD scanned

The Plaintiff, contends that the information provided was sufficient to effectuate a timely service of process on defendants, Cindy Scala, Wilbur Justice and Theresa Demarco.

But by the time that service of process could be made, these defendant's had decided to either retire or move on to another job, out side of the department of corrections.

And because the Plaintiff is currently incarcerated, the addresses of these defendant's would most likely, not be provided directly to the Plaintiff.

therefore, the defendant's, Cindy Scala, Wilbur Justice and Theresa Demarco, should not be dismissed, because the Plaintiff has<sup>nt</sup> provided these defendant's home addresses.

As to the defendant, Cline Danials, the reason why a timely service of process hasn't been done effectively, do to a miss-spelled name, of this one defendant, the correct spelling of this defendant is "Lynne Clendaniel".

And if this Honorable court would allow the Plaintiff enough time to Amend, ~~to~~ to correctly spell this defendant name so that she can be served. the Plaintiff would do so with know delay.
